

DO's & Don'ts

Here's a Disclaimer and Acknowledgment Form for the Do's and Don'ts in Training:

DISCLAIMER AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT FORM

Do's and Don'ts

This document serves as a Disclaimer and Acknowledgment of the responsibilities, guidelines and expectations set forth regarding the proper conduct of training. By signing below, you confirm your understanding and agreement to adhere to the outlined Do's and Don'ts to ensure ethical, legal, and professional conduct in Training.

Disclaimer:

✓ Do's

1. Do Connect the Training to the Mission
Think about how what you're learning helps support the organization's mission and the people it serves.
2. Do Participate Actively
Engage in discussions, ask questions, and contribute your experiences—your input adds value.
3. Do Come Prepared
Review any materials in advance and be on time. Respect everyone's time and effort.
4. Do Keep an Open Mind
Be willing to learn new skills, challenge assumptions, and try different approaches.
5. Do Respect Different Perspectives
Astra` attract diverse teams. Be open to learning from others' backgrounds and viewpoints.
6. Do Apply What You Learn
Think about how you can use the training in your daily work or volunteer role.

7. Do Offer Feedback
Let trainers know what worked and what didn't—your feedback helps improve future sessions.
 8. Do Ask for Help If You Need It
If something isn't clear, speak up. You're here to learn, not to know everything already.
 9. Do Take Notes
Jot down key points or ideas you want to remember or implement later.
 10. Do Share Knowledge
After training, help others who couldn't attend or share useful takeaways with your team.

✕ Don'ts

1. Don't Treat It as a Checkbox
This isn't just something to "get through"—it's meant to help you grow and serve better.
 2. Don't Be Distracted
Close unrelated tabs on your system and give the session your full attention.
 3. Don't Disregard Relevance
Even if the topic doesn't seem immediately useful, consider how it might help you or others in the future.
 4. Don't Dominate the Conversation
Share your thoughts, but also make space for others to speak.
 5. Don't Be Afraid of Not Knowing
You're not expected to have all the answers—training is a learning space.
 6. Don't Ignore the Follow-Up
Apply the training afterward. Don't let it be forgotten once the session ends.
 7. Don't Dismiss Soft Skills
Communication, empathy, and teamwork are just as important as technical knowledge.
 8. Don't Skip Mandatory Sessions
Some trainings (like compliance or safeguarding) are critical for your role—treat them seriously.
 9. Don't Use Inappropriate Language or Humour
Maintain a respectful, inclusive tone at all times, especially in diverse groups.
 10. Don't Forget the Big Picture
Always remember: the training is ultimately about improving service to the community and fulfilling the non-profit's mission.
